Join us for a dynamic learning experience in civics education!

The Teachers Law School will provide an in-depth look at key civics topics addressed in the California History-Social Science Framework. Participants will walk away with a more thorough understanding of and renewed passion for civics and law-related education, along with ABOTA's classroom resources and presentation materials to help middle and high school teachers facilitate instruction.

Featured Speakers:

- Hon. Huey P. Cotton, Jr., Los Angeles Superior Court
- Hon. Kevin C. Brazile, Assistant Presiding Judge, Los Angeles Superior Court
- Justice Arthur G. Scotland (Ret.), Third District Court of Appeal
- Justice William W. Bedsworth, Fourth District Court of Appeal
- Michael P. Maguire, President-Elect of National ABOTA
- Douglas P. Adams, Sacramento Chapter of ABOTA

Moderators:

- Bryan R. Reid, President-Elect of CAL-ABOTA
- William B. Smith, President of CAL-ABOTA

Featured Topics:

- Importance of Judicial Independence
- Separation of Powers (Panel)
- Civility Matters in Law & Society
